Chapter 1 by Katie Grace

Friday night is always game night at my house. It's just me and my friend ally, usually another person, but tonight it's just me and her. So tonights theme for games is trivia, or something that will work our brains till they are tired of thinking. I tell her to go to the game room and she comes out with the worst game ever made. Scrabble of course it had to be scrabble. So we set it up and play the first round and of course I lose. So we put back the game go into the kitchen and make some popcorn, when we come back surprisingly the game is set back up again except this time there is one more person sitting there ready to play.

Chapter 2 by Phantim

It was Satan. Yeah, the devil. We were surprised and scared. We tried to run away, but when we opened the door there was nothing but fire! As we turned back around, he was opening his mouth. He is going to eat us! Well, that's what I thought anyway. Instead, he spoke.

"Play me for your souls. If you win, I'll grant you a wish. If you refuse to play, then I will simply kill you and you can roll the dice about whether or not your soul goes to heaven or hell." He pauses looking at our bookshelf, "Since I don't see any Bible on your shelf, I am gonna assume your souls will come with me. Now, let's SCRABBLE!
